Registering to the training session of SUHR implies accepting all the conditions mentioned on the registration form as well as accepting the academic programme.

No ulterior recourse or appeal will be taken in consideration.

Le CUHD-UEDH reserves itself the right to effect last minute modifications to the programme or to the list of teachers.

Only participants who have attended all courses, workshops and seminars are entitled to obtain the Certificate on completion of Unit 2 and/or the Leadership Training Programme in economic, social and cultural rights.

Withdrawal or failure to attend part or the whole of the course during the academic year does not entitle to any reimbursement, including regarding the session in Geneva, Unit 2. In case of force majeure however, if at the last moment a participant is prevented from taking part in the session in Geneva, the CUHD-UEDH can, upon request, transfer his/her participation to the following year.

When paying the fees, please note that all bank draft and currency exchange expenses are incumbent on the participant and should be added, if needed, to the amount transferred.

In case of litigation, Geneva laws and jurisdiction are applicable.
